Evolution of elegance

Crafting Timeless Style with Floating Life

My vision found strong support in my husband, Andrea Pezzini, whose enthusiasm for expanding trading activities has always been unwavering. Since 2006, we have diligently cultivated the Floating Life style brand, transforming it into a widely recognized and successful business.

Our Collection has been meticulously crafted with a steadfast commitment to offering enduring items, challenging the common assumptions prevailing in the market. Rather than following trends, we have chosen to focus on timeless designs, allowing our brand to stand out.

Yachting Style with Italian Elegance

Immersed in the rich tradition of Italian fashion, Floating Life Crew Uniforms represent a distinct choice of style. Redefining standards within the yachting world, we have introduced an exclusive line of Crew Uniforms that embody a seamless blend of sophistication and functionality. Our garments are meticulously crafted, ensuring a continuous commitment to excellence, all proudly "Made in Italy." Aligned with our vision of delivering high-quality clothing tailored for maritime crews, each piece is designed to optimize both comfort and style.

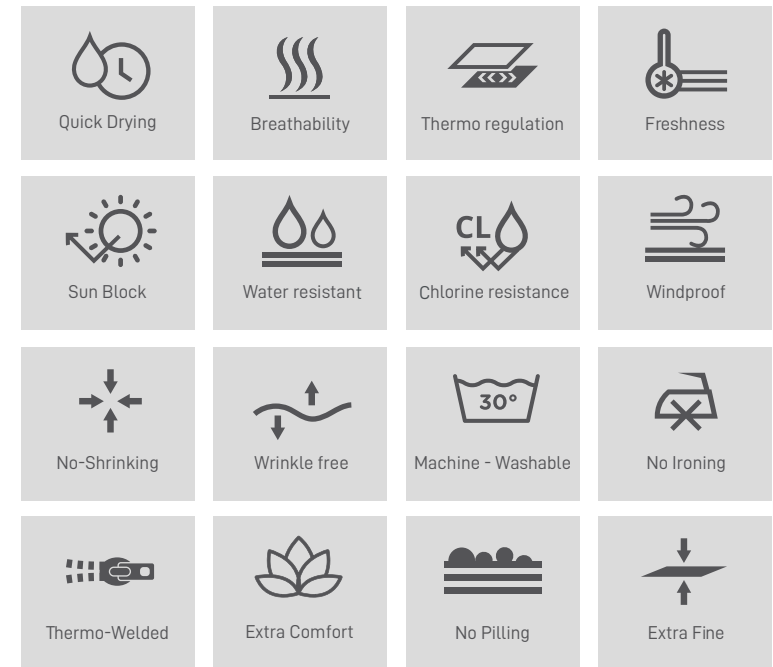

Sartorial Excellence

Presenting a premium, impeccably tailored Made in Italy Collection with a refined aesthetic, tailored from the highest quality fabrics. Our focus lies in seamlessly combining comfort and wearability—crucial elements for workwear. The precision in design underscores our commitment to delivering excellence. Through the ongoing evolution of our Collection, we offer a streamlined process for restocking crew essentials, ensuring a hassle-free experience for all their needs.

Fabrics specifications

Most of our garments are made in Polyamide fabric. The first available polyamide fibre was nylon, which is still one of the lightest fiber. Nylon is known for its high resistance towards abrasion and tearing. In addition, nylon is elastic and does not crease. Polyamide differentiates from Polyester because it is breathable, hypoallergenic, leaves no reaction on skin, quick dry and extra comfort.

From your head to your hand

An experienced team, composed by stylists and fashion consultants is always available to provide the perfect garment which will meet your needs. Plenty sketches can be prepared and evaluated along with the Client before the confirmation and the production.

A variety of fabrics will be suggested by Floating life in order to find the perfect solution for your tailor-made garment. Trust us to produce your unique and special uniform at the utmost quality level.

Embracing Eco-Friendly fabrics in our collection

The clothing industry has witnessed a paradigm shift in recent years, with consumers expressing a growing concern for the environmental footprint of their clothing choices. One significant stride we've taken towards this goal is the incorporation of eco-friendly fabrics in our latest collection.

STANDARD

Safer for You safer for the environment

Oeko-Tex certified fabrics go beyond basic quality standards; they are crafted with meticulous attention to detail, ensuring that no harmful chemicals or substances are present in the final product. This not only guarantees a safer and healthier experience for the wearer but also contributes to a cleaner and more sustainable environment.

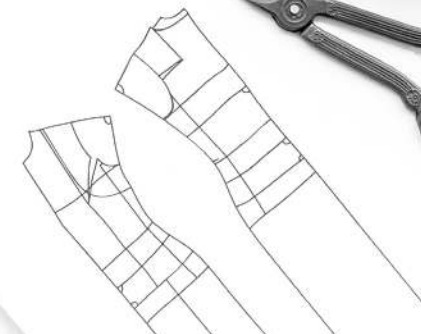

OEKO TEX®

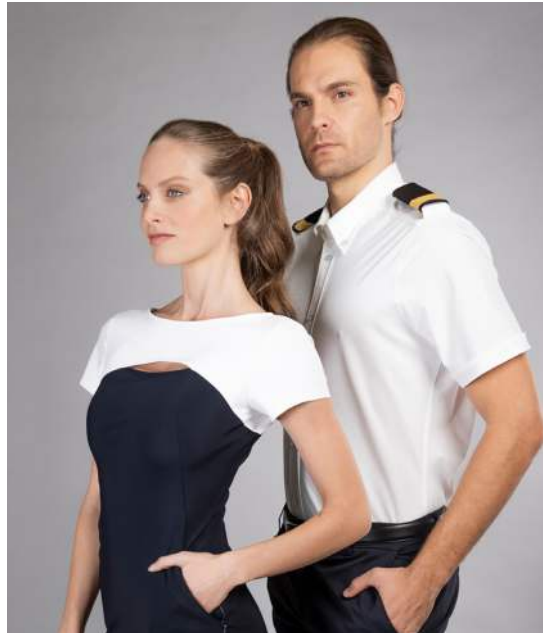

Production pathway

At our company, we take pride in crafting bespoke garments tailored to perfection. We go the extra mile by providing on-site assistance to ensure accurate sizing, personally taking all necessary measurements. Subsequently, the meticulously crafted attire is delivered, organized and designated for each individual.

Our commitment extends beyond the point of purchase, with a steadfast after-sales service that guarantees the highest level of attention and satisfaction for our valued clientele

Our Uniforms

Welcome aboard Floating Life, where luxury meets functionality in the world of yacht crew uniforms. As a premier provider, we take pride in offering two exclusive collections tailored to meet the diverse needs and preferences of maritime professionals: "The Collection" and "Prive."

The Collection

The Collection offers a continuous selection of yacht crew uniforms, ensuring availability in diverse sizes and colors at all times. Whether for a new season, changes in crew size, or wardrobe updates, it remains a reliable source for both style and dependability.

Privè

In this bespoke collection, every detail is precisely tailored to align with your specific needs and tastes. Privè allows you to select not just the design but also the fit, colors, and unique embellishments, creating uniforms that truly reflect your yacht's identity.

Daytime

Discover a collection blending style and functionality for daytime yacht activities. Carefully crafted, our uniforms redefine maritime fashion, embodying sophistication and practicality. Each piece reflects our commitment to excellence, proudly marked "Made in Italy."

Daytime yacht attire

In our relentless pursuit of excellence, the creation of our Daytime Yacht Uniforms goes beyond mere aesthetics. Emphasizing comfort as a non-negotiable element, we've gone the extra mile to ensure that style harmoniously coexists with practicality.

A Collection uniting style

The result is a collection that not only meets the highest standards of style but also seamlessly integrates the comfort and functionality necessary for those who call the open sea their workplace.

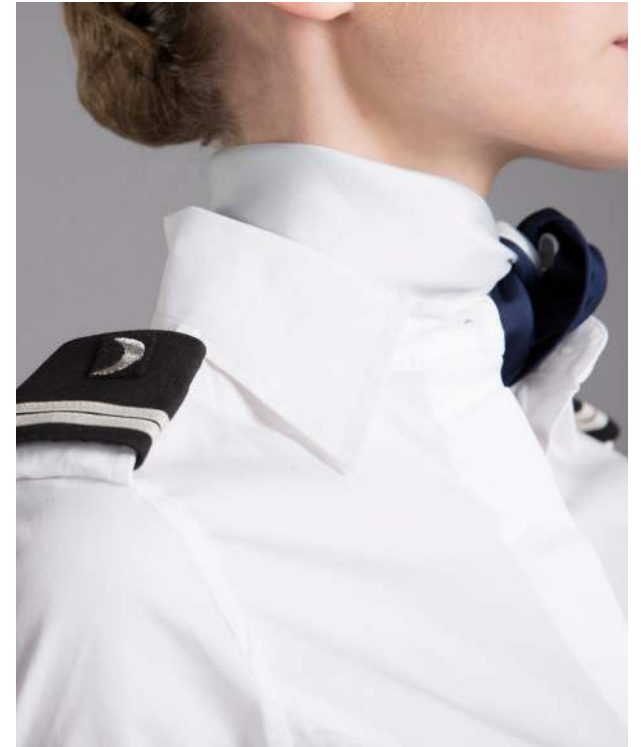

Night time

Step into a world of refined sophistication with our Night time Yacht Uniforms, meticulously designed to complement the allure of the evening seascape.

High-end Comfort in Night time

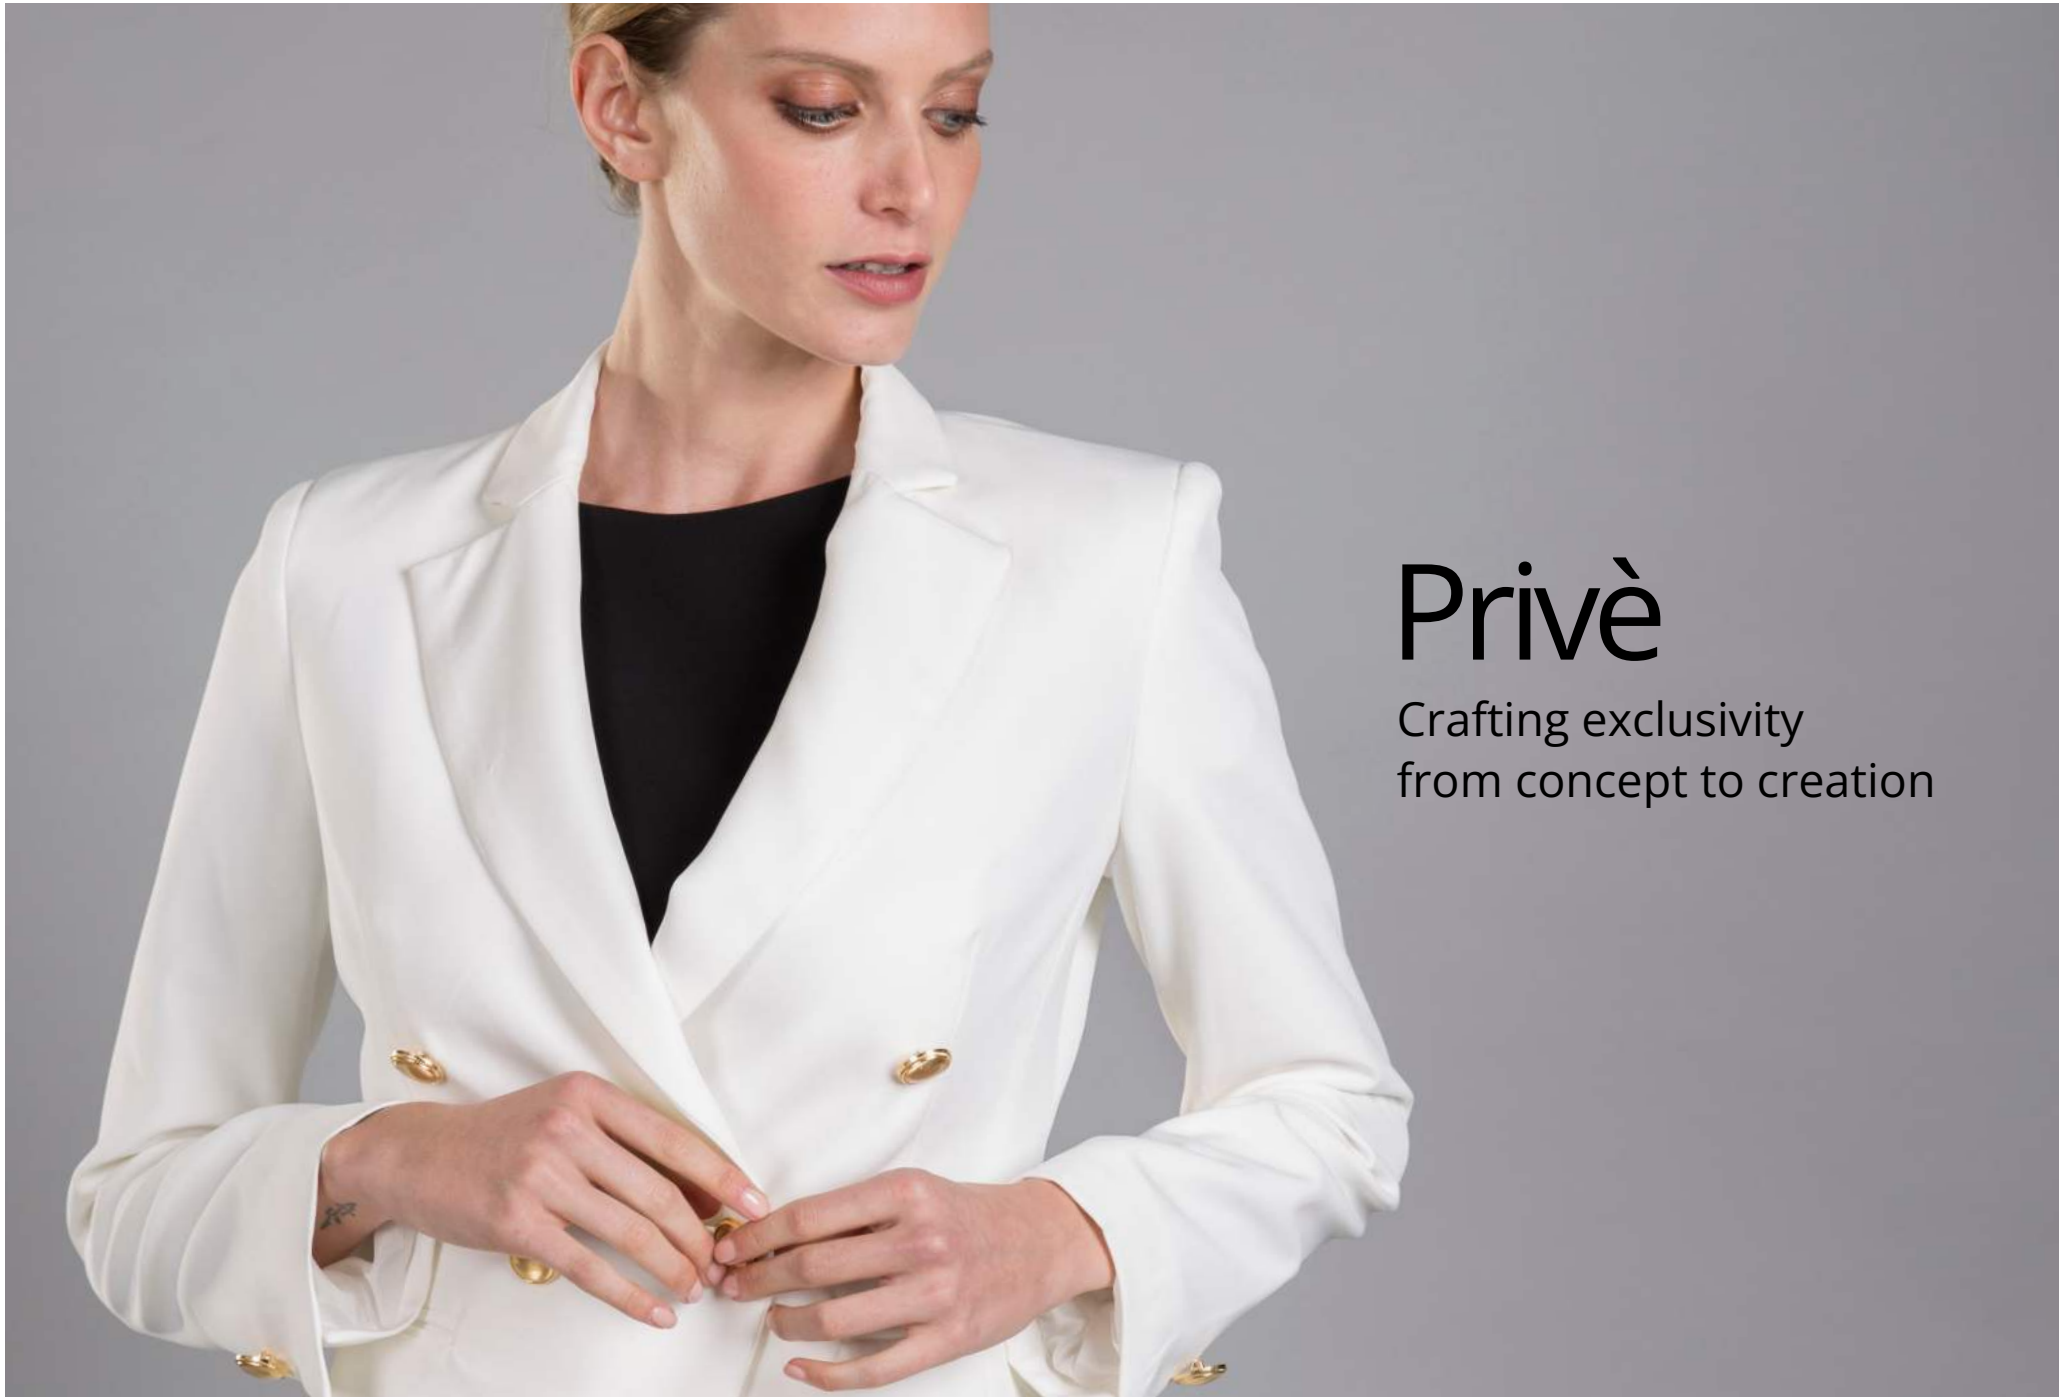

Our Night time Yacht Uniforms embody the essence of elegance and comfort. The silhouettes are thoughtfully curated to enhance both the aesthetic appeal and practicality required for nighttime yacht activities.

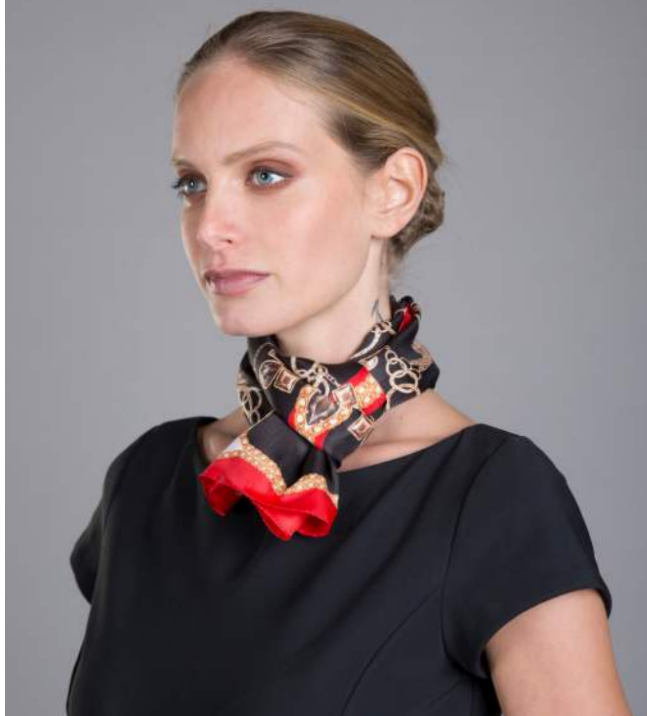

Elevating Crew Presence

Whether on the deck under the starlit sky or in the yacht's elegant interior, our uniforms ensure that every crew member radiates a sense of professionalism and style.

Elevating Maritime Elegance

From the preliminary sketch to the completion of the final garment, each bespoke piece from FLS is thoroughly designed to meet the unique expectations of our clients.

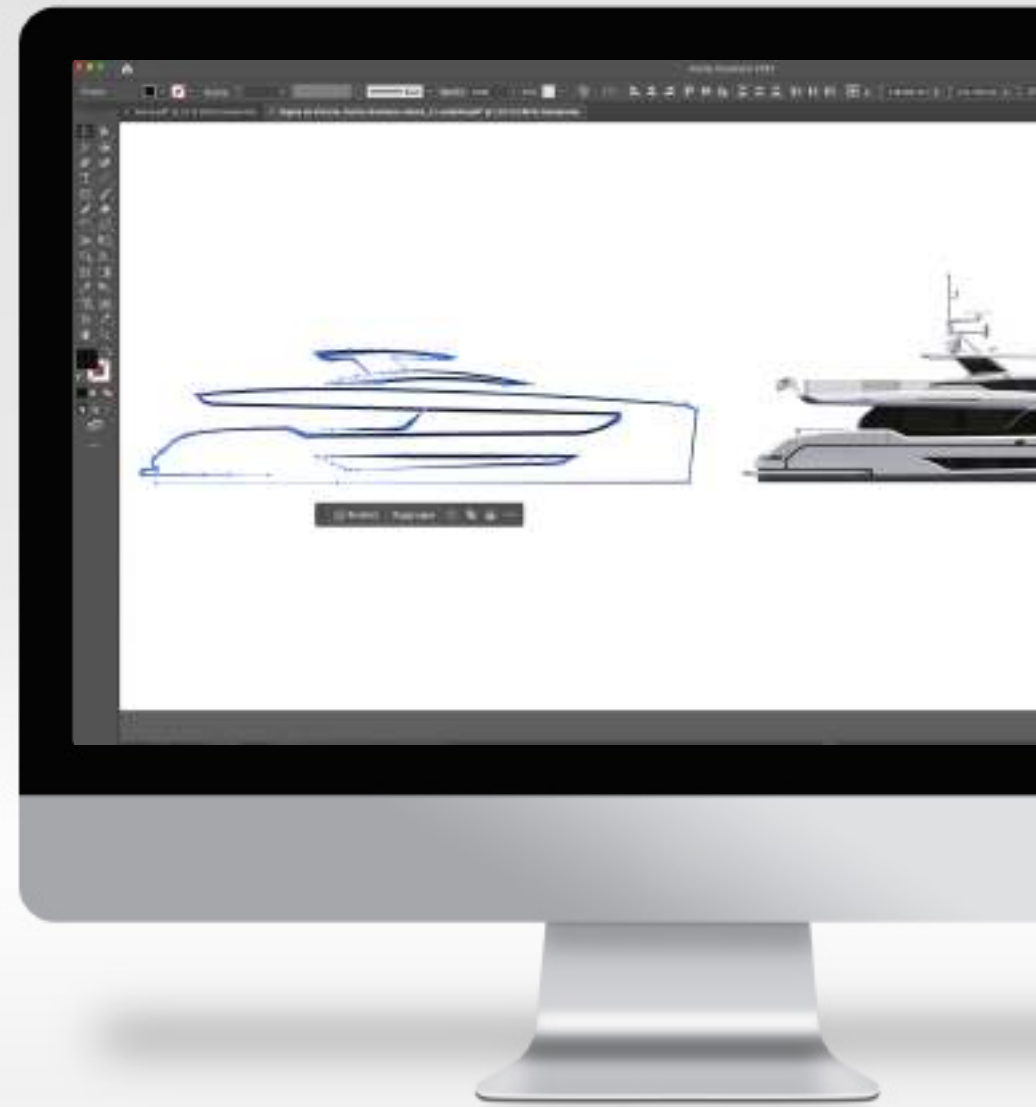

A Touch of Nautical Sophistication

Under the direction of an in-house stylist, the company possesses the capacity to craft bespoke products tailored for both owners and crew members, guaranteeing a personalized and exceptional experience

Crafting Signature Yacht Logos for Vessel and Crew Uniforms

At Floating Life Style, we specialize in crafting unique yacht logos that not only adorn the vessel but also serve as distinctive emblems for crew uniforms. Our design process involves creating a logo that captures the essence and personality of each yacht, ensuring a seamless blend of style and identity.

Embroidery

More than 200 strings are available to choose from the colour pattern booklet. All strings fibers are in polyester to avoid colour loss after washing. The laboratory is equipped with the latest machines, able to embroider more than one colour.

Printing

We adopt the silk-screen printing method for printing, one of the best techniques since the ink is transferred onto a substrate.

This method provides a durable option that will withstand the test of time without fading. Every logo can be printed with more than one colour, different dimensions, various styles and fonts.
